

NORSOK STANDARD R-003 & 005

Course length 1 day - Online course Zoom Meetings

R-003 Offshore - R-005 Onshore
Norwegian requirements and standards.

Prerequisites

No prerequisites

Minimum enrollments - 5

Target audience

This course is relevant for personnel who will work in the petroleum industry on-shore or offshore in accordance with Norwegian requirements and standards. (Norsok)

Course goal

The purpose of the course is to give the course participants a good theoretical review and understanding of the use of Norsok R-003 & 005N. Basic training in NORSOK standard R-003 - 005. The training will provide a general understanding of the structure, content and contribute to an accepted level of safety for personnel, property and the environment in planning and execution of lifting operations. At same time as one will particularly focus on responsibility and attitude in the performance of lifting operations.

Examination

A theoretical test which verify that the candidate have achieved course goals

Course subjects

Introduction
Terms, definitions and abbreviations
Safe use of lifting equipment
Requirements for the lifting of personnel
Requirements for different lifting appliances
Requirements for different types of lifting gear
Temporarily assembled lifting appliances
Critical lifting operation
Marine liftingoperation
Roles and responsibility
Training requirements
local procedures
Logistics, doc. marking
Hand signals
Maintenance
Enterprise of competence

Course diploma

A diploma of course completion shall be issued to each student who has successfully met the requirement of the course. The diploma will include BIKS Training Centre AS, Course title, Date of the course, Date of birth (Student), Name of the student and be signed by Managing Director/Coordinator.

Validity

In accordance with the company internal control system