

NORSOK STANDARD R-003N & R-005
Course length 1 day - Online course Teams

R-003 Offshore - R-005 Onshore - Norwegian requirements and standards.

Pre-requisites: None

Minimum enrollments - 5

Target audience

This course is relevant for personnel who will work in the petroleum industry on-shore or offshore in accordance with Norwegian requirements and standards. (Norsok)

Course goal:

The purpose of the course is to give the course participants a good theoretical review and understanding of the use of Norsok R-003 & 005N. Basic training in NORSOK standard R-003 - 005. The training will provide a general understanding of the structure, content and contribute to an accepted level of safety for personnel, property and the environment in planning and execution of lifting operations. At same time as one will particularly focus on responsibility and attitude in the performance of lifting operations.

Examination:

A theoretical test which verify that the candidate have achieved the course goals.

Course subjects:

Introduction
Terms, definitions and abbreviations
Safe use of lifting equipment
Requirements for the lifting of personnel
Requirements for different lifting appliances
Requirements for different types of lifting gir
Temporarily assembled lifting appliances
Critical lifting operation
Marine liftingoperation
Training requirements
Local procedures
Logistics, DOC. Marking
Hand signals
Maintenance

Roles and responsibilities for all personnel such as. (Example) Lifting appliance operator, Operational responsible, Technical responsible, deck operator, signaler, slinger, rigger, mentor, examiner, vessel deck crew and so on.

Course diploma:

A diploma of course completion shall be issued.