

Banksman and slinger training G11

3 days. Including module 1 & 2.3

Prerequisites:

None.

Course Overview:

The course provides information on the safe and correct use of lifting equipment and accessories and best practice to promote a safer environment for persons involved. The course is to Norwegian Labour Inspection Authority and NORSOK R-003N & R-005 approved standards.

Module: Lifting Equipment (Module: 1 & 2.3) 3 days course.

For more information about the course:

For more information send us an e-mail to kurs@biks.no

Course Structure:

The course is a mix of theory and practical with a bias towards practical exercises. Delegates are evaluated by means of an examination.

Target group:

Personnel wishing to be involved with the slinging of loads and signalling of cranes. It is also beneficial to offshore line management and other personnel with a responsibility for safe crane lifting operations.

Course Content:

The syllabus designed to ensure that on completion of training the delegates will be able to:

- Understand the meaning of laws and regulations
- Banksman and Slinger Training
- Safe use of lifting equipment G11
- Correct hand signs and radio signals to the crane operator
- Understand responsibilities of a banksman/slinger
- Use of lifting table for chain slings, wire rope slings and fibre slings with statement of lifting capacity for different working angles, number of legs and dimensions.
- Loadfactors for symmetric- and asymmetric lifting
- Understand safe and correct methods of slinging loads, correct use and care of equipment (includes pre-use examination of equipment and identification of defects)

Diploma / Certificate of competence G11:

Completed and passed course: Course Certificate will be issued.

According to NORSOK STANDARD R-003N / R-005N

BIKS AS is a certified training center ATS 202. Certified by the ASAS Certification AS Norway - Approved by Norwegian Labour Inspection Authority.